HIS ORDEAL ENDED.

The Three Days' Cross-Examination of Adm. Schley Was Concluded Wednesday.

ONE MORE WITNESS FOR THE ADMIRAL.

The Judge Advocate Will Then Put on the Stand about Fifteen Witnesses in Re却eness.

Original Report of the Battle Written by Schley July 6, 1898, Was Not Allowed to Go into the Records.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The long ordeal to which Adm. Schley has been subjected since Monday morning ended Wednesday afternoon when his cross-examination was concluded and he was allowed to leave the witness stand. While the judge advocate issued the examination shortly after 3 o'clock the court pronounced to the admiral 34 questions prepared by the members of the court. These questions touched many points of the campaign of the flying squadron, but mainly centered about the difference in opinion in regard to the reasons for the retrograde movement. Not one of them related to the battle of Santiago. The judge advocate's cross-examination Wednesday covered the retrograde movement, the reconnaissance of May 31, the loop around Brooklyn, and the alleged encounter with Leut. Hudson about the Texas.

One of the most interesting features of the day was the development of the fact that the report of the battle written by Adm. Schley July 6, 1898, was not the original report. The original report never had been exhibited. In accordance with a previous decision the court Wednesday declined it to go into the records.

Why Schley Made the Charge.

Adm. Schley was allowed to explain, however, that Adm. Sampson declined to receive the first report because it did not mention the presence of the gunboat Concord in the "battle story at that time," said Adm. Schley in explaining the matter, "was big enough for all, and I made this change out of generosity and because I knew if the New York had been present she would have done as good work as myself."

Capt. Thomas Gordon, of the marine corps, who was aboard the Brooklyn, will be the last witness called for Adm. Schley. After he testifies Thursday the judge advocate can call on the stand the witnesses in evidence of whom they are understood to be about 15, and it is probable that Adm. Schley's counsel will call several witnesses in support.

The entire independent industry has been running for the last month. It is doubtful if the trusts will be able to operate their factories at full capacity, owing to scarcity of skilled laborers.

HEAD END COLLISION.

Three Men Killed and Ten Injured. Two of Whom May Die. Near Washington, Pa.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 31.—A wreck occurred on the Baltimore & Ohio east of Sandy's Run, near Uniontown, east of Washington Wednesday, which resulted in the death of three men and the injury of ten others, two of whom may die. The wreck was caused by a head end collision between an empty freight engine and an express train, running ahead of the train. The stories of the cause of the wreck are conflicting and it will take a coroner's jury to determine who is responsible for it. The engine was on its way from Washington loaded with road oil, going to render assistance at a freight yard at Sandy's Run. Station wagon was hit by the passenger train just as the engine emerged from the tunnel, both going at high speed.

SCHOOL QUESTION.

Secretary of the Interior Formally Abrogated What is Known as the Browning Ruling.

THIS IS A MOST IMPORTANT ACTION

The Effect of the Order Leaves the Indians Generally Free to Go to Any School.

Complaint Made That the Children Were Being Taken From the Government and Transferred to Catholic Schools.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Secretary of the Interior, Wednesday, formally abrogated what is known as the Browning ruling, which in effect holds that it is the duty of the service to fill the regular government schools before permitting drifts on the Indian children for sectarian schools. The order was issued Wednesday and was signed by the Catholic mission board, it says that "by direction of the secretary of the interior, the Browning ruling is hereby abrogated."

This is the most important action taken for a long period in the matter of sectarian Indian schools. The commission, the order followed assurances given earlier in the day by Secretary Hitchcock to Archibald Ireland, of St. Paul, and Riordan, of San Francisco, who called to urge him that a recent suspension of the ruling would be changed to a definite abolition of the order. The effect of the order it is understood leaves Indians generally free to go to any school or attend none of them.

The Browning Ruling.

The Browning ruling was made in a letter written by former Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning to Col. Chapin, the acting agent in charge of the plains, Oct. 1, 1891, and complained that children were being taken from the government's schools and transferred to the Catholic schools, and that the latter were interfering with the government school pupils.

Commissioner Browning said that the agent was the one to decide what schools the children should attend, he being best fitted to pass upon their welfare. It is said, however, in one instance the government transferred an Indian child from sectarian to a government school. The attorney general, however, ruled that the agent and the secretary of the department of the interior, respectively, should be declared to represent the value of the corporation's franchise, and that a tax in accordance with that valuation shall be levied on the franchise. The measure was transmitted to the senate.

THE LEDGER yesterday contained a notice of the arrest by Special Deputized officer Wallace of Mr. Perry Orme upon a telephone message from Manchester, based upon the charge of horse stealing.

WHAT THEY MADE.

The Elks Cleared $427.29 on Their Recent Fair and Carnival.

It was a success,
Socially,
Jovially and Financially!

Last evening the Executive Committee of the Elk Fair, consisting of Thomas A. Davis, President; M. C. Russell, Vice President; and J. D. Dye, reported to the bridge the results of the Fair held September 4-7 last.

After all bills had been paid there was a net balance of $427.29.

This is the first Fair given in Maysville in many years that has not been a losing venture; and the Elks are willing to try it over again, satisfied that they can do even better next year.

MASON'S MEDICINE MEN.

Large Representation at the Monthly Meeting Wednesday.

There was a goodly number of representative members in attendance at the Mason County Medical Society's meeting yesterday at the Court House. The Doctor's hospitality was without limit, taking shape in a repast nothing short of a feast, which was served by the ladies of the cheery household with infinite grace. Appreciation of the cordial reception was unanimous and appropriate. A hearty vote of thanks was decided one of the Society's most enjoyable outings. "Home from Wadonga and still in the ring!" is a thing to say.

By seeming consent medicine, as such, was not mentioned, but the speakers, in the proceedings, failed to accord with the prevailing jollity and good fellowship. Dr. Ellis' paper was upon "Recollections of London Hospitals and Their Doctors," given in the Doctor's best style, which leaves nothing to be said. Possibly some things escaped Dr. Ellis' notes, but they were not mentioned, but if they were of minor mention.

In lieu of an essay Dr. Browning read a story of "Eating Out a Doctor," in which in early life he was the proposed victim. It was suggested by the orator that the general host, Dr. Cook, but differing radically in effect, far as advised.

By invitation of Dr. Alex. Hunter the next meeting will be held at Washington November 27th; essays by Dr. Thomas E. Pickett and Dr. John J. Cook.
